Reimbursement Procedures:

Reimbursement for employees and spouses must be made by the employee and can be submitted for reimbursement each calendar year quarter or on an annual basis. The following documentation must be submitted to the Human Resources Department for approval of a wellness reimbursement benefit for both the employee and spouse.

- Wellness Reimbursement Policy Acknowledgement/Waiver form, prior to reimbursement (this is one-time requirement).
- Wellness Reimbursement Request Form
- Itemized receipt(s)

Expenses must be submitted in the calendar year in which they are incurred, and reimbursement will be considered up to the annual maximum wellness amount. Expenses incurred in December must be submitted by the 10th day of January the following year.

Reimbursement to the employee will be made through payroll corresponding to the following schedule:

Requests Received By:	Reimbursement Made:
March 31	Second payroll in April
June 30	Second payroll in July
September 30	Second payroll in October
December 31	Second payroll in January of the following calendar year

Tax Liability:

Reimbursement from the “Feeling Fit” Victory Wellness Reimbursement Program is subject to IRS rules and regulations. Amount(s) reimbursed to employees will be reported as taxable income, and are subject to FICA, Medicare, Federal, State, and local taxes. The amount will be considered taxable in the year in which the reimbursement is received.

Termination of Employment:

Reimbursement for services will be made for employees who are in active status or on an approved leave of absence. Only the dates of services incurred while the employee is employed will be considered for reimbursement. Reimbursement must be requested while the employee is on active working status. “Active working status” means that you have not resigned (or given notice of your intention to resign) or have not been terminated (or been given notice of your termination).

Rehire of Employee:

If an employee is rehired in the same year as termination occurred, any amount of wellness dollars that were paid in the calendar year of termination will be counted toward the current year maximum. Eligibility for rehired employees is the 1st of the month following their rehire date.
